This month, I'm happily ensconced in a beautiful cottage on the island of Bryher in the UK's very own piece of paradise - the Scilly Isles.

Perfect for wild swimming, boating, kayaking and walking in unspoilt, locations. The UK also has loads of other island locations which are perfect for an early getaway, warmed by the gulf stream - Jersey, Guernsey and Sark are also firm favourites...just get in touch to find out how we can whisk you off the paradise with no PCR testing or other covid complications.

In this newsletter I'm also showcasing some of the escorted group tours, holidays and cruises we can offer.

Take all the logistics planning and stress out of your holiday and let the experts take the strain. There's plenty of free time on these tours so you don't feel like you are stuck with an exhausting itinerary but you do get to see far more of a country than if you tried to organise it yourself. We're showcasing 2 very different tour operators - Newmarket and Intrepid. Read on to find out which would suit your travel style best...
