It's all about the Staycation...

By Bridget Perriman, Director, World Class Adventures

Ahhh 2020, you were a rubbish year, though you did deliver on sunshine!

As much as we all love thoughts of jetting off around the world, the UK has got so much to offer and #staycation2021 gives us a great opportunity to explore this summer!

I fondly remember bygone UK holidays where I scoffed delicious cream teas, enjoyed a Mr Whippy ice cream with a flake, and ate fish & chips out of the wrapper on the seafront or sat in a sunny pub garden with a pint and watched the world go by! Our tour operator partners have plenty of ideas for a week away during the summer holidays, which I'll share with you in the next pages. Availability is already extremely limited, so please do get in touch as soon as possible if I can help you plan and book a UK summer holiday, or just pack up and have a long weekend to get away from it all!

I think we all feel we deserve the holiday of a lifetime when we are free to roam overseas again and there's no time like the present to get planning for 2022. Bucket List trips are going to be all the rage, so get in early before prices inevitably rise!
